

Public Roundtable

Dialogue 4.0: The Role of Religious Communities in Fostering Inclusive Societies and Sustainable Development

Bologna, 6 March 2019, 3:00-5:00 pm
Oratorio di San Giovanni Battista dei Fiorentini
Sala di rappresentanza Banca di Bologna
(Corte de' Galluzzi, 6)

As the world is said to be on the cusp of a fourth industrial revolution, or Industry 4.0, do we need a dialogical revolution, or Dialogue 4.0, that is a new era of interreligious dialogue and collaboration to help humankind foster inclusive societies and sustainable development worldwide? In an ever more polarized world, should policymakers see religious actors as partners in building long-term strategies to foster pluralism, social cohesion and sustainable development?

Keynote Speaker

Emanuela Claudia DEL RE, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation – Italy

Speakers

Kristina ARRIAGA, Vice-Chair of the US Commission for International Religious Freedom - USA

Craig CALHOUN, Professor of Social Sciences, Arizona State University - USA

Fadi DAOU, Chairman and CEO, Adyan Foundation - Lebanon

Alberto MELLONI, Director, John XXIII Foundation for Religious Studies; UNESCO Chair on Religious Pluralism and Peace, Bologna University - Italy

Yahya PALLAVICINI, President, COREIS Islamic Religious Community of Italy

Fabio PETITO, University of Sussex & Head of the MFAIC-ISPI Programme on 'Religions and International Relations' – Italy/UK

The conference will be held in English without translation.

TO ENROLL PLEASE CLICK HERE

Please note that the Conference room is accessible only by stairs.
The access to the room will be allowed as long as seats are available.

The event is organised with the support of Fondazione per le scienze religiose "Giovanni XXIII" in the context of the European Academy of Religion Annual Conference (Program).

The public roundtable is part of the 10th edition of the ISPI-MFAIC 'Religions and International Relations' Programme seminar which this year will explore opportunities for collaborative work across the policy agendas of Religious Engagement, Freedom of Religion or Belief, and Sustainable Development by evaluating the idea of Interreligious Engagement Strategies.